Prospective Student Admissions Workshops, Transfer Visits & Open Houses

Students interested in the University of Maryland, Smith School Undergraduate Program at USG can meet with a Smith School advisor by attending one of the below admissions workshops, open houses or transfer visits.

- We highly recommend that students bring a copy of their most recent official or unofficial transcript to any of the below events.
- Due to the competitive nature of our program, the increased number of applicants and the number of current students enrolled in our program we can not meet with prospective students on a walk-in advising basis.
